6 Section 2. Section 70-9-803, MCA, is amended to read:

7 "70-9-803. Presumptions of abandonment. (1) Except as provided in subsection (6), property is 8 presumed abandoned if it is unclaimed by the apparent owner during the time set forth below for the particular 9 property:

10 (a) traveler's check, 15 years after issuance;

11 (b) money order, 7 years after issuance;

12 ~~(c) stock or other equity interest in a business association or financial organization, including a~~
13 ~~security entitlement under Title 30, chapter 8, 5 years after the earlier of:~~

14 ~~(i) the date of the most recent dividend, stock split, or other distribution that was unclaimed by the~~ 15 ~~apparent owner; or~~

16 ~~(ii) the date of the second mailing of a statement of account or other notification or communication~~ 17 ~~that was returned as undeliverable or after the holder discontinued mailings, notifications, or communications to~~ 18 ~~the apparent owner;~~

19 ~~(d)(C)~~ debt of a business association or financial organization, other than a bearer bond or an original 20 issue discount bond, 5 years after the date of the most recent interest payment that was unclaimed by the 21 apparent owner;

22 ~~(e)(D)~~ demand, savings, or time deposit, including a deposit that is automatically renewable, 5 years
23 after the earlier of maturity or the date of the last indication by the owner of interest in the property; however, a 24 deposit that is automatically renewable is considered matured for purposes of this section upon its initial date of 25 maturity unless the owner has consented to a renewal at or about the time of the renewal and the consent is in 26 writing or is evidenced by a memorandum or other record on file with the holder;

27 ~~(f)(E)~~ money or credits owed to a customer as a result of a retail business transaction, other than in-

2 (g)(F) gift certificate, 3 years after December 31 of the year in which the certificate was sold, but if 3 redeemable in merchandise only, the amount abandoned is considered to be 60% of the certificate's face value.

4 A gift certificate is not presumed abandoned if the gift certificate was sold by a person who in the past fiscal
5 year sold no more than $200,000 in gift certificates, which amount must be adjusted by November of each year
6 by the inflation factor. The amount considered abandoned for a person who sells more than the amount that 7 triggers presumption of abandonment is the value of gift certificates greater than that trigger. ~~However, an~~

2 ~~(t) — except for property described in [section 12] and property held in a plan described in section~~
3 ~~529A of the Internal Revenue Code, 26 U.S.C. 529A, as amended, property held in an account or plan,~~
4 ~~including a health savings account, that qualifies for tax deferral under the income tax laws of the United States,~~
5 ~~as provided in [section 13];~~

6 ~~(u) — property held in an account established under a state's Uniform Gifts to Minors Act or Uniform~~
7 ~~Transfers to Minors Act is presumed abandoned if it is unclaimed by or on behalf of the minor on whose behalf~~
8 ~~the account was opened, as provided in [section 14];~~

9 ~~(v)(O)(P) a security, as provided in [section 15 SECTION 40 9]; and~~

10 ~~(g)(w)(P)(Q) all other property, 5 & 5 years after the owner's right to demand the property or after~~ 11 ~~the obligation to pay or distribute the property arises, whichever first occurs.~~

12 (2) At the time that an interest is presumed abandoned under subsection (1), any other property 13 right accrued or accruing to the owner as a result of the interest, and not previously presumed abandoned, is 14 also presumed abandoned.

15 (3) Property is unclaimed if, for the applicable period set forth in subsection (1), the apparent 16 owner has not communicated in writing or by other means reflected in a contemporaneous record prepared by 17 or on behalf of the holder with the holder concerning the property or the account in which the property is held
18 and has not otherwise indicated an interest in the property. A communication with an owner by a person other 19 than the holder or its representative who has not in writing identified the property to the owner is not an 20 indication of interest in the property by the owner.

21 (4) An indication of an owner's interest in property includes:

22 (a) the presentment of a check or other instrument of payment of a dividend, ~~interest payment,~~ or 23 other distribution made with respect to an account or underlying stock or other interest in a business
24 association or financial organization or, in the case of a distribution made by electronic or similar means,
25 evidence that the distribution has been received;

26 (b) owner-directed activity in the account in which the property is held, including a direction by the 27 owner to increase, decrease, or change the amount or type of property held in the account;

1 (c) ~~the owner-directed activity of THE~~ making of a deposit to or withdrawal from an account in a
2 financial organization; ~~including an automatic deposit or withdrawal previously authorized by the apparent~~
3 ~~owner other than an automatic reinvestment of dividends or interest; and AND~~

4 (d) the payment of a premium with respect to a property interest in an insurance policy; however,
5 the application of an automatic premium loan provision or other nonforfeiture provision contained in an
6 insurance policy does not prevent a policy from maturing or terminating if the insured has died or the insured or 7 the beneficiary of the policy has otherwise become entitled to the proceeds before the depletion of the cash 8 surrender value of a policy by the application of those provisions; ~~and~~

9 ~~(e) an action by an agent or other representative of an apparent owner, other than the holder~~
10 ~~acting as the apparent owner's agent, which is presumed to be an action on behalf of the apparent owner.~~

11 (5) Property is payable or distributable for purposes of this part notwithstanding the owner's failure 12 to make demand or present an instrument or document otherwise required to obtain payment.

13 (6) The presumption provided in subsection (1) does not apply to:

14 (a) unclaimed patronage refunds of a rural electric or telephone cooperative if the cooperative 15 uses the refunds exclusively for educational purposes; or

16 (b) unclaimed shares in a nonutility cooperative if the cooperative uses the shares for charitable or 17 civic purposes in the community in which the cooperative is located.

18 (7) For the purposes of this section, "inflation factor" means a number determined for each tax
19 year by dividing the consumer price index for June of the previous tax year by the consumer price index for 20 June 2015."

1 apparent owner, not more than 120 days or less than 60 days before filing the report, stating that the holder is 2 in possession of property subject to this part if:

3 (a) the holder has in its records an address for the apparent owner that the holder's records do not
4 disclose to be inaccurate;

5 (b) the claim of the apparent owner is not barred by a statute of limitations; and 6 (c) the value of the property is $50 or more.

7 ~~(6)(8)(6)~~ Before the date for filing the report, the holder of property presumed abandoned may 8 request the administrator to extend the time for filing the report. The administrator may grant the extension for 9 good cause. The holder, upon receipt of the extension, may make an interim payment on the amount the holder
10 estimates will ultimately be due, which terminates the accrual of additional interest on the amount paid.

11 ~~(7)(9)(7)~~ The holder of property presumed abandoned shall file with the report an affidavit 12 stating that the holder has complied with subsection ~~(5)~~ (5).

13 ~~(10) — A holder who, on July 1 of each year, holds property presumed abandoned, holds the property~~

19 Section 4. Section 70-9-809, MCA, is amended to read:

20 "70-9-809. Payment or delivery of abandoned property to administrator. (1) Except for property 21 held in a safe deposit box or other safekeeping depository, upon filing the report required by 70-9-808, the 22 holder of property presumed abandoned shall pay, deliver, or cause to be paid or delivered to the administrator
23 the property described in the report as unclaimed; however, if the property is an automatically renewable 24 deposit and a penalty or forfeiture in the payment of interest would result, the time for compliance is extended
25 until a penalty or forfeiture would no longer result. Tangible property held in a safe deposit box or other 26 safekeeping depository may not be delivered to the administrator until 60 days after filing the report required by 27 70-9-808.

9 Section 6. Section 70-9-812, MCA, is amended to read:

10 "70-9-812. Public sale of abandoned property. (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, the 11 administrator, within 3 years after the receipt of abandoned property, shall sell it to the highest bidder at public 12 sale at a location in the state, which in the judgment of the administrator affords the most favorable market for 13 the property. The administrator may decline the highest bid and reoffer the property for sale if the administrator
14 considers the bid to be insufficient. The administrator need not offer the property for sale if the administrator
15 considers that the probable cost of sale will exceed the proceeds of the sale. A sale held under this section 16 must be preceded by a single publication of notice, at least 3 weeks before sale, in a newspaper of general

7 Section 7. Section 70-9-820, MCA, is amended to read:

8 "70-9-820. Requests for reports and, examination of records, and confidentiality. (1) The 9 administrator may require a person that has not filed a report or a person that the administrator believes has 10 filed an inaccurate, incomplete, or false report to file a verified report in a form specified by the administrator.
11 The report must state whether the person is holding property reportable under this part, describe property not 12 previously reported or as to which the administrator has made inquiry, and specifically identify and state the 13 amounts of property that may be in issue.

14 (2) The administrator, at reasonable times and upon reasonable notice, may examine the records
15 of any person to determine whether the person has complied with this part. The administrator may conduct the 16 examination even if the person believes it is not in possession of any property that must be reported, paid, or 17 delivered under this part. The administrator may contract with any other person to conduct the examination on 18 behalf of the administrator.

19 (3) The administrator, at reasonable times, may examine the records of an agent, including a 20 dividend disbursing agent or transfer agent, of a business association or financial organization that is the holder 21 of property presumed abandoned if the administrator has given the notice required by subsection (2) to both the 22 association or organization and the agent at least 90 days before the examination.

23 (4) Documents and working papers obtained or compiled by the administrator, or the 24 administrator's agents, employees, or designated representatives, in the course of conducting an examination
25 and personal information obtained from a holder's reports, except for the personal information published 26 pursuant to 70-9-810, are confidential and are not public records, but the documents and papers may be:

1 enforce this part;

2 (b) used in joint examinations conducted with or pursuant to an agreement with another state, the 3 federal government, or any other governmental subdivision, agency, or instrumentality;

4 (c) produced pursuant to subpoena or court order; or

5 (d) disclosed to the abandoned property office of another state for that state's use in 6 circumstances equivalent to those described in this subsection (4) if the other state is bound to keep the 7 documents and papers confidential.

8 (5) The administrator may only disclose confidential personal information to an apparent owner of 9 unclaimed property, or the apparent owner's personal representative, power of attorney, attorney-in-fact, or 10 agent, or a beneficiary of the apparent owner or the unclaimed property.

11 ~~(5)~~(6) If an examination of the records of a person results in the disclosure of property reportable
12 under this part, the administrator may assess the cost of the examination against the holder at the rate of $200
13 a day for each examiner, or a greater amount that is reasonable and was incurred, but the assessment may not 14 exceed the value of the property found to be reportable. The cost of an examination made pursuant to 15 subsection (3) may be assessed only against the business association or financial organization.

16 ~~(6)~~(7) If, after July 1, 1997, a holder does not maintain the records required by 70-9-821 and the 17 records of the holder available for the periods subject to this part are insufficient to permit the preparation of a 18 report, the administrator may require the holder to report and pay to the administrator the amount the 19 administrator reasonably estimates, on the basis of any available records of the holder or by any other 20 reasonable method of estimation, should have been but was not reported."

2 the notice or indication, to confirm whether the apparent owner is deceased.

3 (3) — If the holder does not send communications to the apparent owner of an account described in 4 subsection (1) by first-class United States mail, the holder shall attempt to confirm the apparent owner's interest
5 in the property by sending the apparent owner an electronic mail communication not later than 2 years after the 6 apparent owner's last indication of interest in the property. However, the holder shall promptly attempt to 7 contact the apparent owner by first-class United States mail if:

8 (a) — the holder does not have the information needed to send the apparent owner an electronic mail
9 communication or the holder believes that the apparent owner's electronic mail address in the holder's records
10 is invalid;

11 (b) — the holder receives notification that the electronic mail communication was not received; or

12 (c) — the apparent owner does not respond to the electronic mail communication within 30 days after 13 the communication was sent.

14 (4) — If first-class United States mail sent under subsection (3) is returned to the holder undelivered
15 by the United States postal service, the property is presumed abandoned 3 years after the later of:

16 (a) — except as provided in subsection (4)(b), the date a second consecutive communication sent by
17 the holder by first-class United States mail to contact the apparent owner is returned to the holder undelivered
18 by the United States postal service;

19 (b) — if the second communication is sent later than 30 days after the date the first communication is
20 returned to the holder undelivered by the United States postal service, the date the first communication was

7 NEW SECTION. Section 14. — When custodial account for minor presumed abandoned. (1)

8 Property held in an account established under a state's Uniform Gifts to Minors Act or Uniform Transfers to 9 Minors Act is presumed abandoned if it is unclaimed by or on behalf of the minor on whose behalf the account 10 was opened 3 years after the later of:

11 (a) — except as provided in subsection (1)(b), the date a second consecutive communication sent by 12 the holder by first-class United States mail to the custodian of the minor on whose behalf the account was 13 opened is returned to the holder undelivered by the United States postal service;

14 (b) — if the second communication is sent later than 30 days after the date the first communication is
15 returned to the holder undelivered by the United States postal service, the date the first communication was 16 returned to the holder undelivered by the United States postal service; or

17 (c) — the date on which the custodian is required to transfer the property to the minor or the minor's 18 estate in accordance with the Uniform Gifts to Minors Act or the Uniform Transfers to Minors Act of the state in 19 which the account was opened.

20 (2) — If the holder does not send communications to the custodian of the minor on whose behalf an 21 account described in subsection (1) was opened by first-class United States mail, the holder shall attempt to 22 confirm the custodian's interest in the property by sending the custodian an electronic mail communication not 23 later than 2 years after the custodian's last indication of interest in the property. However, the holder shall 24 promptly attempt to contact the custodian by first-class United States mail if:
