7 Indian status do not constitute legal notice as required by [section 8 7].

7 (3) (a) If the Indian child meets the definition of Indian child through more than one tribe because

2 ~~(3) — For the purposes of this section, any harm that may result from interfering with the bond or~~

6 (4)(3) (a) Evidence required under this section must show a causal relationship between the specific

9 (b) Evidence showing only the existence of community or family poverty, isolation, single 10 parenthood, custodian age, crowded or inadequate housing, substance abuse, or nonconforming social

14 NEW SECTION. Section 14. Emergency removal of Indian child. (1) Nothing in [sections 1 through 15 ~~20 19 16 18~~] may be construed to prevent the department from removing an Indian child from the Indian child's

18 (2) An emergency removal or placement of an Indian child under state law must terminate

20 damage or harm to the child.

21 (3) A state court shall:

23 imminent physical damage or harm to the child;

24 (b) promptly hold a hearing on whether the emergency removal or placement continues to be

4 (4) An emergency proceeding may be terminated by any of the following actions:

5 (a) initiation of a child custody proceeding subject to the provisions of the federal Indian Child
6 Welfare Act and [sections 1 through 20 ~~19~~ 16 18];

9 (5) A petition for a court order authorizing the emergency removal or placement, or its

4 (6) Contact made to provide notice of an emergency removal and reported pursuant to subsection
5 (5)(c) does not constitute the notice required under [section-8 7] for the purposes of subsequent dependency,
6 termination of parental rights, or adoption proceedings.

7 (7) An emergency proceeding regarding an Indian child may not be continued for more than 30 8 days unless the court determines that:

9 (a) restoring the child to the parent or Indian custodian would subject the child to imminent
10 physical damage or harm;

11 (b) the court has been unable to transfer the proceeding to the jurisdiction of the appropriate Indian 12 tribe; and

13 (c) it has not been possible to initiate a child custody proceeding.

15 NEW SECTION. Section 15. Consent. (1) At an involuntary foster care placement hearing, a 16 stipulation or consent by the parent or Indian custodian is not valid unless the court certifies on the record that

4 (4) An Indian child's parent or Indian custodian may withdraw consent to a voluntary foster care
5 placement at any time. On withdrawal of consent, the Indian child must be returned to the parent or Indian

7 (5) In a voluntary proceeding for termination of parental rights to or adoptive placement of an 8 Indian child, the consent of the parent may be withdrawn for any reason at any time prior to the entry of an 9 order terminating parental rights or a final decree of adoption, and the Indian child must be returned to the 10 parent.

11 (6) (a) After the entry of a final decree of adoption of an Indian child, the parent may withdraw
12 consent to the adoption on the grounds that consent was obtained through fraud or duress. On a finding that 13 consent was obtained through fraud or duress, the court shall vacate the decree and return the Indian child to

20 the parent or Indian custodian or has improperly retained custody after a visit or other temporary relinquishment
21 of custody, the court shall decline jurisdiction over the petition and shall immediately return the Indian child to 22 the parent or Indian custodian unless returning the Indian child to the parent or Indian custodian would subject
23 the Indian child to substantial and immediate danger or threat of substantial or immediate danger.

24
25 NEW SECTION. Section 17. Removal of Indian child from adoptive or foster care placement. (1)

4 (2) If an Indian child is removed from a foster care placement or a preadoptive or adoptive home
5 for the purposes of further foster care or a preadoptive or adoptive placement, the placement must be made in

9 NEW SECTION. Section 18. Placement preferences. (1) When an emergency removal, foster care
10 placement, or preadoptive placement of an Indian child is necessary, the petitioning party shall, in the absence 11 of good cause to the contrary, place the Indian child in the least restrictive setting that:

- 12 (a) most closely approximates a family situation;
13 (b) is in reasonable proximity to the Indian child's home; and 14 (c) allows for the Indian child's special needs, if any, to be met.

15 (2) In a foster care or preadoptive placement, preference must be given, in the absence of good 16 cause to the contrary, to the Indian child's placement with one of the following, in descending order of priority:

- 17 (a) an Indian child's extended family member;
18 (b) a foster home licensed, approved, or specified by the Indian child's tribe;
19 (c) an Indian foster home licensed or approved by an authorized non-Indian licensing authority; or 20 (d) an institution for children approved by an Indian tribe or operated by an Indian organization that 21 has a program suitable to meet the Indian child's needs.

- 9 that may be required for the best interests of the child.
- 10 (b) The petition may be modified for different relief at any time within the discretion of the court.
- 11 (c) A petition for temporary legal custody may be the initial petition filed in a case.
- 12 (d) A petition for the termination of the parent-child legal relationship may be the initial petition filed

- 14 made in the petition.
- 15 (2) The county attorney, attorney general, or an attorney hired by the county shall file all petitions

- 17 must be accompanied by:
- 18 (a) an affidavit by the department alleging that the child appears to have been abused or neglected

1 (i) probable cause for the issuance of an order for immediate protection and emergency protective 2 services or an order for temporary investigative authority;

3 (ii) a preponderance of the evidence for an order of adjudication or temporary legal custody;

4 (iii) a preponderance of the evidence for an order of long-term custody; or 5 (iv) clear and convincing evidence for an order terminating the parent-child legal relationship.

6 (b) If a proceeding under this chapter involves an Indian child, as defined in the federal Indian
7 Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. 1901, et seq., or [section 4 3], the standards of proof required for legal relief under 8 the federal Indian Child Welfare Act and [sections 1 through 20 19 16 18] apply.

9 (6) (a) Except as provided in the federal Indian Child Welfare Act and [sections 1 through 20 19 16
10 18], if applicable, the parents or parent, guardian, or other person or agency having legal custody of the child
11 named in the petition, if residing in the state, must be served personally with a copy of the initial petition and a 12 petition to terminate the parent-child legal relationship at least 5 days before the date set for hearing. If the 15 (b) Copies of all other petitions must be served upon the person or the person's attorney of record

16 by certified mail, by personal service, or by publication as provided in 41-3-428 and 41-3-429. If service is by 17 certified mail, the department must receive a return receipt signed by the person to whom the notice was mailed
18 for the service to be effective. Service of the notice is considered to be effective if, in the absence of a return 19 receipt, the person to whom the notice was mailed appears at the hearing.

20 (7) If personal service cannot be made upon the parents or parent, guardian, or other person or 21 agency having legal custody, the court shall immediately provide for the appointment or assignment of an 22 attorney as provided for in 41-3-425 to represent the unavailable party when, in the opinion of the court, the 23 interests of justice require. If personal service cannot be made upon a putative father, the court may not provide 24 for the appointment or assignment of counsel as provided for in 41-3-425 to represent the father unless, in the 25 opinion of the court, the interests of justice require counsel to be appointed or assigned.

26 (8) If a parent of the child is a minor, notice must be given to the minor parent's parents or 27 guardian, and if there is no guardian, the court shall appoint one.

1 (9) (a) Any person interested in any cause under this chapter has the right to appear. Any foster
2 parent, preadoptive parent, or relative caring for the child must be given legal notice by the attorney filing the 3 petition of all judicial hearings for the child and has the right to be heard. The right to appear or to be heard
4 does not make that person a party to the action. Any foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative caring for the 5 child must be given notice of all reviews by the reviewing body.

6 (b) A foster parent, preadoptive parent, or relative of the child who is caring for or a relative of the 7 child who has cared for a child who is the subject of the petition who appears at a hearing set pursuant to this 8 section may be allowed by the court to intervene in the action if the court, after a hearing in which evidence is 9 presented on those subjects provided for in 41-3-437(4), determines that the intervention of the person is in the 10 best interests of the child. A person granted intervention pursuant to this subsection is entitled to participate in 11 the adjudicatory hearing held pursuant to 41-3-437 and to notice and participation in subsequent proceedings 12 held pursuant to this chapter involving the custody of the child.

13 (10) An abuse and neglect petition must state:

14 (a) the nature of the alleged abuse or neglect and of the relief requested;

15 (b) the full name, age, and address of the child and the name and address of the child's parents or 16 the guardian or person having legal custody of the child; and

17 (c) the names, addresses, and relationship to the child of all persons who are necessary parties to 18 the action.

19 (11) Any party in a proceeding pursuant to this section is entitled to counsel as provided in 41-3-20 425.

21 (12) At any stage of the proceedings considered appropriate by the court, the court may order an 22 alternative dispute resolution proceeding or the parties may voluntarily participate in an alternative dispute
23 resolution proceeding. An alternative dispute resolution proceeding under this chapter may include a family
24 engagement meeting, mediation, or a settlement conference. If a court orders an alternative dispute resolution
25 proceeding, a party who does not wish to participate may file a motion objecting to the order. If the department 26 is a party to the original proceeding, a representative of the department who has complete authority to settle the 27 issue or issues in the original proceeding must be present at any alternative dispute resolution proceeding.

5 through 20 19 46 18], if applicable;

6 (b) right to contest the allegations in the petition; and 7 (c) timelines for hearings and determinations required under this chapter.

8 (14) If appropriate, orders issued under this chapter must contain a notice provision advising a 9 child's parent, guardian, or other person having physical or legal custody of the child that:

10 (a) the court is required by federal and state laws to hold a permanency hearing to determine the 11 permanent placement of a child no later than 12 months after a judge determines that the child has been 12 abused or neglected or 12 months after the first 60 days that the child has been removed from the child's home;

13 (b) if a child has been in foster care for 15 of the last 22 months, state law presumes that

14 (c) In determining preservation or reunification services to be provided and in making reasonable

13 or neglected, the county attorney, the attorney general, or an attorney hired by the county may file a petition for 14 immediate protection and emergency protective services. In implementing the policy of this section, the child's 15 health and safety are of paramount concern.

16 (b) A petition for immediate protection and emergency protective services must state the specific 17 authority requested and must be supported by an affidavit signed by a representative of the department stating 18 in detail the alleged facts upon which the request is based and the facts establishing probable cause or, if the 19 case is subject to the federal Indian Child Welfare Act or [sections 1 through 20 19 16 18], clear and convincing

4 (d) If the parents, parent, guardian, person having physical or legal custody of the child, or attorney
5 for the child disputes the material issues of fact contained in the affidavit or the veracity of the affidavit, the 6 person may request a contested show cause hearing pursuant to 41-3-432 within 10 days following service of 7 the petition and affidavit.

8 (e) The petition for immediate protection and emergency protective services must include a notice 9 advising the parents, parent, guardian, or other person having physical or legal custody of the child that the 10 parents, parent, guardian, or other person having physical or legal custody of the child may have a support

9 (h) any other temporary disposition that may be required in the best interests of the child that does 10 not require an expenditure of money by the department unless the court finds after notice and a hearing that the 11 expenditure is reasonable and that resources are available for payment. The department is the payor of last 12 resort after all family, insurance, and other resources have been examined.

4 continued custody of the Indian child by the parent or Indian custodian is likely to result in serious emotional or 5 physical damage to the Indian child.

6 (c) The court may grant an extension of time for a show cause hearing only upon a showing of 7 substantial injustice and shall order an appropriate remedy that considers the best interests of the child.

8 (2) The person filing the petition has the burden of presenting evidence establishing probable 9 cause for the issuance of an order for temporary investigative authority after the show cause hearing, except as 10 provided by the federal Indian Child Welfare Act or [sections 1 through 20 19 16 18], if applicable.

1 "41-3-437. Adjudication -- temporary disposition -- findings -- order. (1) Upon the filing of an
2 appropriate petition, an adjudicatory hearing must be held within 90 days of a show cause hearing under 41-3-3 432. Adjudication may take place at the show cause hearing if the requirements of subsection (2) are met or 4 may be made by prior stipulation of the parties pursuant to 41-3-434 and order of the court. Exceptions to the 5 time limit may be allowed only in cases involving newly discovered evidence, unavoidable delays, stipulation by 6 the parties pursuant to 41-3-434, and unforeseen personal emergencies.

7 (2) The court may make an adjudication on a petition under 41-3-422 if the court determines by a
8 preponderance of the evidence, except as provided in the federal Indian Child Welfare Act or sections 1
9 through 20 19 16 18, if applicable, that the child is a youth in need of care. Except as otherwise provided in this 10 part, the Montana Rules of Civil Procedure and the Montana Rules of Evidence apply to adjudication and to an 11 adjudicatory hearing. Adjudication must determine the nature of the abuse and neglect and establish facts that 12 resulted in state intervention and upon which disposition, case work, court review, and possible termination are 13 based.

14 (3) The court shall hear evidence regarding the residence of the child, paternity, if in question, the 15 whereabouts of the parents, guardian, or nearest adult relative, and any other matters the court considers 16 relevant in determining the status of the child. Hearsay evidence of statements made by the affected youth is 17 admissible according to the Montana Rules of Evidence.

18 (4) In a case in which abandonment has been alleged by the county attorney, the attorney general,
19 or an attorney hired by the county, the court shall hear offered evidence, including evidence offered by a person
20 appearing pursuant to 41-3-422(9)(a) or (9)(b), regarding any of the following subjects:

21 (a) the extent to which the child has been cared for, nurtured, or supported by a person other than 22 the child's parents; and

23 (b) whether the child was placed or allowed to remain by the parents with another person for the 24 care of the child, and, if so, then the court shall accept evidence regarding:

25 (i) the intent of the parents in placing the child or allowing the child to remain with that person;

26 (ii) the continuity of care the person has offered the child by providing permanency or stability in 27 residence, schooling, and activities outside of the home; and

5 (B) whether the child was originally placed with the other person to allow the parent to seek

7 (5) In all civil and criminal proceedings relating to abuse or neglect, the privileges related to the 8 examination or treatment of the child do not apply, except the attorney-client privilege granted by 26-1-803 and 9 the mediation privilege granted by 26-1-813.

10 (6) (a) If the court determines that the child is not an abused or neglected child, the petition must 11 be dismissed and any order made pursuant to 41-3-427 or 41-3-432 must be vacated.

12 (b) If the child is adjudicated a youth in need of care, the court shall set a date for a dispositional

17 adjudicatory hearing, the court shall make written findings on issues, including but not limited to the following:

18 (i) which allegations of the petition have been proved or admitted, if any;

19 (ii) whether there is a legal basis for continued court and department intervention; and

18 (2) The court may appoint a guardian for a child pursuant to this section if the following facts are 19 found by the court:

20 (a) the department has given its written consent to the appointment of the guardian, whether the 21 guardianship is to be subsidized or not;

22 (b) if the guardianship is to be subsidized, the department has given its written consent after the
