

Re: Montana Legislative Histories

Thank you for contacting the State Law Library of Montana regarding a Montana legislative history. The Montana Legislature meets every two years, commencing in January of odd-numbered years. The primary sources for determining legislative intent in Montana are the minutes of meetings of the legislative committees that considered the bill, the exhibits to those hearings, and the various versions of the bill that were proposed throughout the process. Where these materials "live" generally depends upon the date of their creation.

8       "95-1711. Effect of former-prosecution--and--multiple
9       multiple charges and former prosecutions. (1) Definitions--of
10      terms. (a) The term "same transaction" includes conduct
11      consisting of:
12       (i) a series of acts or omissions which are motivated
13       by a purpose to accomplish a criminal objective, and which
14       are necessary or incidental to the accomplishment of that
15       objective; or
16       (ii) a series of acts or omissions which are motivated
17       by a common purpose or plan and which result in the repeated
18       commission of the same offense or affect the same person or 19       the-same persons or the property thereof.
20       (b) An offense is an "included offense" when:
21       (i) it is established by proof of the same or less
22       than all the facts required to establish the commission of 23       the offense charged; or
24       (ii) it consists of an attempt to commit the offense
25       charged or to commit an offense otherwise included therein;

1 or
2       (iii) it differs from the offense charged only in the
3 respect that a less serious injury or risk of injury to the
4 same person, property, or public interest or a lesser kind
5 of culpability suffices to establish its commission.

6       (2) ~~Method-of--prosecution--when--conduct--constitutes~~
7 more--than--one--offense. When the same transaction may
8 establish the commission of more than one offense, a person
9 charged with such conduct may be prosecuted for each such
10 offense. He may not, however, be convicted of more than one
11 offense if:

12       (a) one offense is included in the other; ~~or~~
13       (b) one offense consists only of a conspiracy or other
14 form of preparation to commit the other; ~~or~~
15       (c) inconsistent findings of fact are required to
16 establish the commission of the offenses;
17       (d) the offenses differ only in that one is defined to
18 prohibit a designated kind of conduct generally and the
19 other to prohibit a specific instance of such conduct; or
20       (e) the offense is defined to prohibit a continuing
21 course of conduct and the defendant's course of conduct was
22 interrupted, ~~and~~ unless the law provides that the specific
23 periods of such conduct constitute separate offenses.
24       (3) ~~When-prosecution--barred--by--former--prosecutions~~
25       Provided If the offenses--if--more--than--one were known to

1       the attorney prosecuting upon sufficient evidence to justify
2 the filing of an information or the issuance of a warrant of
3 arrest and were consummated prior to the original charge
4 and provided if the jurisdiction and venue of the several
5 offenses lie in a single court, a prosecution based upon the
6 same transaction as a former prosecution is barred by such
7 former prosecution under the following circumstances:
8       (a) The former prosecution resulted in an acquittal.
9       There is an acquittal if whenever the prosecution resulted
10 results in a finding of not guilty by the trier of fact or 11 in a determination that there was insufficient evidence
12 to warrant a conviction. A finding of guilty of a lesser
13 included offense than the offense charged which is
14 subsequently set aside is an acquittal of the greater
15 inclusive offense that was charged.
16       (b) The former prosecution was terminated, after a
17 complaint had been filed on a misdemeanor charge ~~or~~ after a
18 an information had been filed or an indictment found on a
19 felony charge, by a final order of judgment for the 20 defendant which has not been set aside, reversed, or
21 vacated and which necessarily required a determination
22 inconsistent with a fact or a legal proposition that must be
23 established for conviction of the offense.
24       (c) The former prosecution resulted in a conviction.
25 There has been a conviction if whenever the prosecution

1 resulted in:

2 (i) a judgment of conviction which has not been
3 reversed or vacated; or

4 (ii) a verdict of guilty which has not been set aside
5 and which is capable of supporting a judgment, so long as
6 failure to enter judgment was for a reason other than a
7 motion of the defendant; or

8 (iii) a plea of guilty accepted by the court, so long
9 as failure to enter judgment was for a reason other than a
10 motion of the defendant.

11 (d) The former prosecution was improperly terminated.
12 Except as provided in this subsection (d), there is an
13 improper termination of a prosecution if whenever the
14 termination is for reasons not amounting to an acquittal
15 and it takes place after the first witness is sworn but
16 before verdict. Termination under any either of the
17 following circumstances is not improper:

18 (i) the defendant consents to the termination or
19 waives his right to object to the termination. or

20 (ii) the trial court, in the exercise of its 21 discretion, finds that the termination is necessary because:

22 (A) it is physically impossible to proceed with the
23 trial in conformity with law; or

24 (B) there is a legal defect in the proceedings which
25 would make any judgment entered upon a verdict reversible as

1 a matter of law; or

2 (C) prejudicial conduct in or outside the courtroom
3 makes it impossible to proceed with the trial without
4 manifest injustice to either the defendant or the state; or
5 (D) the jury is unable to agree upon a verdict; or
6 (E) false statements of a juror on voir dire prevent a
7 fair trial.

8 (4) Former-prosecution-in-another-jurisdiction--when-a
9 ~~bars~~ When conduct constitutes an offense within the 10 concurrent jurisdiction of this state and of the United 11 States or another state or of two courts of separate ~~and/or~~
12 overlapping, ~~or~~ concurrent jurisdiction in this state, a
13 prosecution in any such other jurisdiction is a bar to a
14 subsequent prosecution in this state under the following
15 circumstances:

16 (a) The first prosecution resulted in an acquittal or
17 in a conviction as defined in subsection (3) and the 18 subsequent prosecution is based on an offense arising out of
19 the same transaction.

20 (b) The former prosecution was terminated, after the 21 complaint was had been filed on a misdemeanor charge, OR 22 after the information was had been filed or the indictment
23 found ~~OR~~, ~~a~~ felony charge, by an acquittal or by a final
24 order or judgment for the defendant which has not been set
25 aside, reversed, or vacated; and which the acquittal, final order or judgment necessarily required a determination inconsistent with a fact which must be established for conviction of the offense of for which the defendant is subsequently prosecuted.

(5) Former prosecution before court--locking jurisdiction--or--when--fraudently--procured--by--the--defendant A prosecution is not a bar within the meaning of subsections (3) and (4) under any one or more of the following circumstances:

(a) the former prosecution was before a court which lacked jurisdiction over the defendant or the offsets, or

(b) the former prosecution was procured by the defendant without the knowledge of the proper prosecuting officer or with the purpose of avoiding the sentence which might otherwise be imposed, or

(c) the former prosecution resulted in a judgment of conviction which was held invalid in any post-conviction a-post-conviction hearing.

MINUTES OF MEETING
SENATE JUDICIARY COMMITTEE
January 11, 1977

Meeting of the Judiciary Committee was called to order by Chairman Jean Turnage on the above date in Room 442 of the State Capitol Building.

ROLL CALL: All members of the committee were present.

The following witnesses were present to testify:

Senator Carroll Graham - District 29
Dave Cogley, attorney - Legislative Council
Senator Chet Blaylock - District 35
Pat Hooks, attorney - Townsend, Montana
Margaret S. Davis, Helena - League of Women Voters of Montana
Larry Weinberg, attorney - Legislative Council
John Hanson - Comm. of Campaign Finances and Practices
Mike Pichette - Montana Democratic Party

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL 9:

Senator Graham told the committee that he had been picked by the Legislative Council to carry this recodification bill. He introduced Dave Cogley, an attorney with the Legislative Council, who went over the bill section by section for the committee and al noted the changes which they had made, their reasons for doing so, and answered questions of the committee.

Chairman Turnage thanked him for having appeared on this bill. He then asked him if he was satisfied that what has been done in the drafting of this bill will not liberalize or enlarge gambling. Dave Cogley said that there is no intent to open the door to enlarged legalized gambling in the drafting of this bill.

The Chairman then asked the Judiciary Committee's attorney, Lon Maxwell, if he felt this bill was satisfactory. He said that Dave Cogley had pretty well covered the ground in this bill and that he does not feel this bill will liberalize the state gambling laws.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL 33:

Pat Hooks, attorney, appeared as a proponent of this bill, but wished to have it amended on page 21, section 35, line 25, by striking ", or ballot issue". He presented the committee with a copy of Judge Battin's Amended Opinion & Order in the case of C & C Plywood Corp. et al. v. John N. Hanson, Commissioner of Campaign Finances and Practices of the State of Montana. (Exhibit #1)

Margaret Davis, Helena, representing the League of Women Voters of Montana, appeared as a proponent of the bill with the words "or ballot issue" left in on page 21, section 35, line 25. She presented a written statement to the committee on S.B. 33. (Exhibit #2).

Joan Mayer, attorney for the Legislative Council, told the committee that they are not supposed to make substantive changes in recodifying. In this case, she felt that section 35 does not belong in the recodification bill because it is still in the courts and is only tentatively unconstitutional.

Mike Pichette of the Montana Democratic Party appeared as an opponent of S.B. 33, echoing the opinion of Joan Mayer of the Legislative Council and stating that Judge Battin's decision may be overturned.

John Hanson, Commissioner of Campaign Finances and Practices of the state of Montana, also appeared as an opponent of S.B. 33.

Pat Hooks requested time to rebut and Chairman Turnage granted him this privilege. He then asked the committee to note the attachment to the bill on the last page and stated that, by deleting section 35 entirely and also the repealer in section 50, line 15, "23-4744," the law would remain as it now stands subject to the appeal currently pending.

At this time, Senator Blaylock closed on S.B. 33, stating that it seems the bill should be left as is for now as it is a recodification bill.

Chairman Turnage asked Joan Mayer, Legislative Council attorney assigned to the Judiciary Committee, to work up something on the repealer. He said he thought it sensible to leave the law as is at this time, and requested a motion.

Senator Towe moved to delete section 35, page 21, and to delete the repealer clause on page 32, section 50, line 15, "23-4744.". The motion carried unanimously.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL 30:

Joan Mayer, Legislative Council attorney, explained the changes she had made in recodifying. She stated that on page 6 she had struck lines 1 through 5 as they were covered in §95-1105 and felt it to be a minor change and §95-1105 is broader.

Chairman Turnage said he did not believe it should be struck altogether. It was suggested that "or adjoining county" should be inserted.

CONSIDERATION OF SENATE BILL 27:

This is the recodification bill for general election laws. Larry Weinberg, attorney for the Legislative Council, was present to explain any changes to the committee. He went through the first six sections, but it was necessary to stop at section 7 as many of the committee members had to attend other meetings at 11:00 a.m..

The committee secretary is to notify John Hanson and the Secretary of States office of the date set for the hearing again on S.B. 27 and 33.

JUDICIARY COMMITTEE
March 4, 1977

The regularly scheduled meeting of the House Judiciary Committee was called to order by Chairman Scully at 8:00 a.m. March 4, 1977, in room 436 of the Capitol Building, Helena, Montana. All members were present with the exception of Representatives Kennerly and Colburn.

Scheduled for hearing were Senate Bills 30, 34, 405, 414, 415 and Senate Joint Resolutions 19 and 28. Senate Bill 419 was cancelled at the request of the sponsor Senator Towe, and will be heard at a later date.

THE HEARING OPENED ON SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION 19.

SENATOR LOCKREM, DISTRICT #32:

This bill requests the legislative committee on priorities to assign to an appropriate standing committee a study of legislation to compensate victims of crime and to have the committee report to the 46th legislature. It should not be used to justify killing 357.

PROPOSER, TOM HONZEL, COUNTY ATTORNEYS ASSOCIATION:

We still support that bill but ask that you do give consideration for Senator Lockrem's bill.

REPRESENTATIVE CONROY:

What was the reason for eliminating the portion dealing with the Indians?

SENATOR LOCKREM:

For some reason they felt it was discrimination, and the question of jurisdiction should be encompassed.

There were no further questions and no opponents, the hearing closed on Senate Joint Resolution 19.

THE HEARING OPENED ON SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION #28:

SENATOR THOMAS, DISTRICT #20:

SJR 28 is asking for an interim study on uniform sentencing procedure. This was asked for by Chief Justice Hatfield in his state of the law message.

JUDGE HATFIELD:

Under the criminal justice plan we will be doing the same things and therefore I am in favor of your doing this. The information you are asking for here will be developed.

TOM DOWLING, SHERIFFS AND PEACE OFFICERS:

We support this bill.

TOM HONZEL, COUNTY ATTORNEYS:

We support this resolution. You can readily see there are problems in the present structure of the justice system of the state of

March 4, 1977

Montana. I think it is proper to do a study of this. I think most of you are aware that a judge can defer sentencing in a case but in some places they are using deferred prosecution. There are some things that are going on already with or without legislative sanction.

There were no other proponents and no opponents.

SENATOR THOMAS:

We think this is a very important study and I think the state of Montana would benefit.

THE HEARING CLOSED ON SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION #28:

THE HEARING OPENED ON SENATE BILL #405:

SENATOR MEHRENS, DISTRICT #45:

This bill was introduced by request of the state fire marshall.

STATE FIRE MARSHALL:

It was at our request that the Senator introduced the bill. It keeps track of the people in the community who start fires. He suggested an amendment on line 11, page 1, to strike "state fire marshall" and insert "arson".

There were no other proponents and no opponents, and no questions, the hearing closed on Senate Bill #405.

MR. A. J. MURRAY:

I am sorry to be late, but I would like to state my opposition to SJR #19. I have a report in the House Appropriations Committee, "The Victim & Restitution Study".

REPRESENTATIVE CONROY:

If we amended the language back in, would that change your opinion.

MR. MURRAY:

The study included the Indian population. He went on to explain the study and the reasoning involved, etc.

CHAIRMAN SCULLY:

I would like to tell you that I talked with Senator Roberts and he said that Senate Bills 414 and 415 are self-explanatory and we, the committee, can do whatever we wish.

THE HEARING OPENED ON SENATE BILL #30:

SENATOR HAZELBAKER, DISTRICT #41:

This is a record bill and I will let the staff explain it to you.

March 4, 1977

JOAN MAYER, LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL:

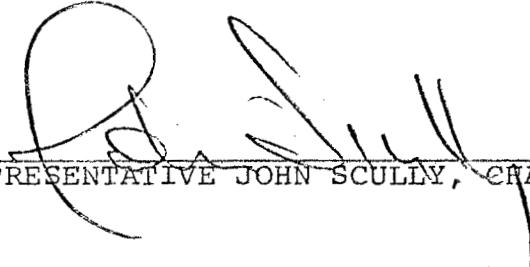

I rewrote this bill to clear it up and to clarify the language. She went through the bill and explained the various sections and what she had done.

SENATE BILL #34:

Joan explained that this was also done, the clarification and rewriting.

CHAIRMAN SCULLY suggested that Joan compile a list of the various sections and what she had done in these two bills and give the copy of the explanation to the committee rather than go through it section by section. This she agreed to do.

The meeting adjourned at 8:45 a.m.

1977 Legislature
Code Commissioner Bill - Summary

Senate Bill No. 30

TO GENERALLY REVISE AND CLARIFY THE LAWS RELATING TO CRIMINAL PROCEDURE.

(This summary does not include discussion of routine form or grammatical changes.)

Section 1. 95-101. Application. Added "all" to clarify. Changed "These provisions" to "This title" to clarify.

Section 2. 95-302.1. Jurisdiction of justices' courts. New section to replace 95-302 which is being moved to the title on the judiciary by recodification - aid recodification

Section 3. 95-501. Mental disease or defect excluding responsibility. Changed "terms" to "term", "re-repeated" to "repeated", and "otherwise" to "other" - apparent errors.

Section 4. 95-507. Determination of irresponsibility on basis of report - examination by psychiatrist chosen by state or defendant - psychiatric testimony upon trial. In subsection (4), clarified "his" and "He".

Section 5. 95-509. Admissibility of statements made during examination or treatment. Rewritten for clarity. Changed the internal reference to 95-505, 95-506, and 95-50 to a reference to the chapter - apparent error, 95-507(b) also provides for examination of the defendant and there is no apparent reason for a distinction. "This chapter", rather than a list of sections, was used for simplicity and to provide for future amendments.

Section 6. 95-603. Issuance and service of arrest warrant upon complaint. Rewrote subsection (3) to clarify. In subsection (4)(c), clarified "he" and deleted last part to correct conflict with 95-1105.

Section 7. 95-704. Grounds for search warrant. Clari"him". Moved part of introductory sentence to new subsection (1) - clarify and correct apparent error.

Section 8. 95-719. Stop and frisk. Made use of "he" and "him" consistent. In subsection (4)(b), changed "probably" to "probable" - apparent error.

Section 9. 95-1001. Right to counsel. Added new subsection (2) to bring in line with Argersinger v. Hamlin, 407 U.S. 25 - constitutionality. In subsection (1), deleted "of record"- representation by counsel is constitutionally required in all courts.

Section 10. 95-1005. Remuneration of appointed counsel. In subsection (1), deleted "action or" and "at law" - superfluous. In subsection (2), deleted "or police" as redundant - city court is the new name for police court; rewrote to clarify that the compensation, as well as "reasonable costs", is chargeable.

Section 11. 95-1104. Bail set in warrant - acceptance by peace officer. Changed "police" to "peace" in last sentence - consistent terminology.

Section 12. 95-1118. Form of conditions of bail, deleted "bond" in two places to clarify that all forms of bail are covered. Deleted "subject to" to clarify.

Section 13. 95-1119. Bail on a new trial. Added "or" to clarify and correct apparent error.

Section 14. 95-1120. Persons prohibited from furnishing bail. Added "acting in an official or professional capacity" to clarify that situations such as bailing out a family member are not covered.

Section 15. 95-1121. Guaranteed arrest bond certificates. Rewrote subsection (2) (a) to clarify. In subsection (3)(a), added "or" to clarify. In subsection (3)(b), deleted "which ... certificate" as superfluous and added "automobile" to clarify. In subsection (3)(b) (ii), deleted "that" - clarify and apparent error.

Section 16. 95-1122. Motor vehicle violations - certificates accepted in lieu of cash. Corrected run-on sentence by inserting "A guaranteed arrest bond certificate" and rewrote last sentence for clarity.

Section 17. 95-1406. Advice and assistance to grand jury - who may be present - stenographer, transcript of testimony. In subsection (2), deleted "of the county" as superfluous and rewrote the subsection to clarify. In subsection (3), added "acquired" to clarify. In subsection (5)(c), deleted two obsolete references to "accusation" - complaint, information and indictment are the only current methods for bringing a criminal action.

Section 18. 95-1407. Subpoena of witnesses. Added "foreman of the" to clarify who signs the subpoena. Rewrote the last sentence to clarify, deleting "upon...them" as superfluous.

Section 19. 95-1408. Reception of evidence. In subsection (1), added "or" to clarify.

Section 20. 95-1502. Commencement of prosecutions. Deleted last phrase of subsection (1) - refers to repealed chapter.

Section 21. 95-1504. Joinder and discharge of offenses and defendants. Deleted four references to "accusation" - see section 15. In subsection (1), deleted "of crimes or offenses" - superfluous. In subsection (6), clarified "it".

Section 22. 95-1506. Procedural requirements - persistent felony offenders. Changed "prior convicted felon" to "persistent felony offender" - update terminology. Changed reference to 94-4713, which has been repealed, to reference to 95-1507 and 95-2206.5. Although technically only 95-1507 is the successor of 94-4713, there is no apparent reason for distinguishing procedural requirements for 95-2206.5. The failure to specify either section was apparently an oversight and including both should avoid challenges as to constitutionality.

Section 23. 95-1507. Sentencing of persistent felony offender. Rewrote and reorganized section to separate out definition of persistent felony offender to aid recodification and clarify. (Note that normally old subsection (2)(c) would be included in the definition in new subsection (1). However, this is not possible since 95-1507 and 95-2206.5 have different age requirements.) In subsection (1)(b), changed "offenders released" to "offender's release" and "previously" to "previous" - apparent errors.

Section 24. 95-1704. Time of making motion. Added "provided...95-1702" to clarify what motion.

Section 25. 95-1706. Effect of determination. Added "have" and deleted "must be" - grammatical clarity. Clarified "it".

Section 26. 95-1707. Transfer of trial. Changed "the" to "a" and added "ordering" to clarify.

Section 27. 95-1709. Substitution of judge. Changed "but...apply" to "except in regard" to clarify. Rewrote subsection (4) to simplify and clarify its application.

Section 28. 95-1711. Effect of multiple charges and former prosecutions. In subsection (2)(e), deleted "and" - apparent error. In subsection (3), deleted "if more than one" - superfluous. In subsection (3)(b), added "or" to clarify. In subsection (3)(d), clarified "this subsection" and changed "any" to "either" to aid recodification by allowing subsections (3)(d)(i) and (ii) to be punctuated as sentences and permitting the deletion of "or" at the end of subsection (3)(d)(i). In subsection (4), changed "and/or" to ", overlapping, or" to correct undesirable usage - see Bill Drafting Manual, page 22. In subsection (4)(b), changed "has" to "had" and "was" to "had been" - apparent errors, added "or" to clarify, added "on a felon charge" to clarify and make consistent with subsection (3)(b), changed "which" to "the" to clarify, and changed "of" to "for" - apparent error. In subsection (5), added "one or more" to aid recodification (see subsection (3)(d)).

Section 29. 95-1803. Discovery, inspection, and notice. Deleted subsection (b), unnecessary and redundant. In subsection (2)(b), changed "the" to "this" to clarify what rule, changed "continuation" to "continuance" - apparent error, and clarified "above". In subsection (3)(a), changed "insanity" to "mental disease or defect" - obsolete terminology. In subsection (3)(a), added "of the witness" to clarify.

Section 30. 95-1810. Witness from another state summoned to testify in this state. In subsection (1), deleted "commenced..." as redundant and changed "will" to "shall" to clarify. Rewrote subsection (2) to clarify. In subsection (3), clarified "hereinbefore...provided" and deleted "to be...or" as redundant.

Section 31. 95-1909. Trial jurors. In subsection (1), added "the names have been" to clarify. In subsection (2)(a), clarified "who...exempted", deleted "of the Civil Code" as an obsolete reference, and deleted "which by...code" as superfluous. Rewrote subsections (4)(b)(i), (4)(b)(ii), (4)(b)(vi), and (4)(b)(x) to clarify. In subsection (4)(b)(viii), changed "with entertaining of" to "having" - apparent error. In subsection (6), deleted reference to justices' and police (city) courts - redundant with 95-2005, and deleted reference to civil cases in last sentence - conflict with 93-1205. Although 93-1205 was last amended in 1971 and 95-1909(f) (now 95-1909(6)) in 1974, the reference to civil cases in 95-1909(f) was apparently accidental. The legislature knew it was amending a section that is part of the title on criminal procedure, just as it knew that 93-1205 is in the title on civil procedure. Also in subsection (6), added last sentence to correct apparent error of omission. Minor rewording of subsection (7) for clarity.

Section 32. 95-1915. Verdict. Deleted fourth paragraph - obsolete references to degrees of a crime.

Section 33. 95-2004. Trial in justices' and city courts. Reworded subsection (1) (a) to incorporate language of 95-2005(a) to aid recodification. Added "whenever...five only" to subsection(3) to clarify and avoid an unconstitutional interpretation.

Section 34. 95-2005. Formation of trial jury. Deleted former subsection (a) - incorporated into 95-2004 to aid recodification. Minor rewording of new subsection (1) to clarify. Added "one" in subsection (2) to clarify. In subsection (4), updated internal reference - 95-1909 is being amended.

Section 35. 95-2006. Verdict. In subsection (1), added "it" to clarify. Reworded subsection (2) to clarify.

Section 36. 95-2007. Sentence and judgment. In subsection (3), deleted redundant language and inserted reference to several sections to clarify. (After recodification, these sections will constitute a part of a chapter and, thus, the internal reference will be simple.)

Section 37. 95-2009. Appeal. In subsection (1), deleted obsolete reference to jury box No. 3 (no longer exists) and added correct internal reference.

Section 38. 95-2010. Disqualification of magistrate or justice of the peace. Deleted nine references to "justice" as unnecessary and confusing; "magistrate or justice of the peace" adequately covers all lower court judges. In subsection (2), changed "but...apply" to "except in regard" to clarify. Rewrote subsection (4) to simplify and clarify its application.

Section 39. 95-2101. New trial. Moved old subsection (3) to new subsection (2)(b) to simplify and aid recodification. In subsection (2)(c)(iii), deleted obsolete reference to degree of a crime.

Section 40. 95-2202. Rendering judgment and pronouncing sentence. Qualified subsection (2) to avoid conflict with 95-1916.

Section 41. 95-2206. Sentence. In subsection (1), deleted reference to "crime" - redundant with "offense". Moved paragraph at end of former subsection (2) to follow former subsection (5) and clarified application - credit for jail time applies to both deferred and suspended sentences. (See In the Matter of Robert J. LeDerma, 33 St. Rep. 902 (1976), in which the Montana Supreme Court stated that the two types of sentences are as a practical matter very similar.) In subsection (1)(d), added "as provided" - apparent error. In subsection (1)(e), changed "or" to "and" - apparent error. In subsection (2)(a)(v), changed "or" to "and" - apparent error. In subsection (2)(b), added reference to city and municipal courts - apparent error. In subsection (3), added "magistrate, or justice of the peace" to clarify, deleted "Thereafter" - superfluous, and changed "this" to "his"- apparent error.

Section 42. 95-2206.1. Sentence to death. Reworded to aid recodification; this section will be incorporated into 93-2206.

Section 43. 95-2206.5. Designation of persistent felon offender for purposes of parole eligibility. Deleted redundancies with 95-1507 and reworded to aid recodification. In subsection (2), clarified "of".

Section 44. 95-2209. Entry of judgment. Deleted reference to "judgment roll" to update. No other references to it appear and it has been abolished in civil cases.

Section 45. 95-2224. Penalty for treating prisoner as involuntary servant. Rewrote to clarify apparent intent.

Section 46. 95-2229. Disposition of traffic fines collected from juveniles. In the first paragraph, clarified "resulting from" and added "or" to clarify. In subsection (1), changed "police" to "peace" in two places for consistent terminology. Minor rewording of subsections (3) and (4) to clarify.

Section 47. 95-2403. Scope of appeal. In subsection (1), changed "code" to "title" to clarify. In subsection (2)(b), updated internal reference - 95-2101 is being amended.

Section 49 through 53. 95-2601, 95-2604, 95-2605, 95-2606, 95-2608. Changed references to motion to references to petition to make terminology in the chapter consistent.

Section 54. 95-2902. Reasonable doubt as to which offense convicts only of least offense. Completely rewrote to delete obsolete references to degrees of an offense and replace them with references to included offenses. Added "beyond a reasonable doubt" in the first clause to clarify. Deleted "public" and "ground of" as meaningless.

Section 55. 95-3004. Burden of the state in homicide trial. In subsection (1), added "the fact" to clarify. In subsection (2), changed "or" to "of" - apparent error.

Section 56. 95-3011. Competency of spouses. Corrected discriminatory phrase "neglect...".

Section 57. 95-3012. Testimony of person legally accountable. Changed "he" to "the testimony" to clarify. In the last sentence, added "if" - apparent error.

Section 58. 95-3110. Rights of accused persons - habeas corpus. In subsection (1), last clause, changed "what" to "that" - apparent error.

Section 59. 95-3113. Arrest of accused before making of requisition. Moved part of paragraph to new subsection (1) to clarify and aid recodification. In subsection (1)(b), moved last clause "is believed..." to clarify and changed "has" to "having" - apparent error. Note that "of this state" was moved to subsection (1). In subsection (2), changed "or" to "and" - apparent error.

Section 60. 95-3117. Extension of time of commitment adjournment. Added "the" to clarify. Changed "county" to "district court" - apparent error. Changed "but with" to "for" to clarify.

Section 61. 95-3120. Guilt or innocence of accused, when inquired into. Clarified "above" by inserting appropriate internal reference (95-3103). Deleted "accompanied... form" - redundant with 95-3103.

Section 62. 95-3123. Application for issuance of requisition. Reworded subsections (1) and (2) to clarify.

Section 63. 95-3125. Restrictions on compensation for assisting return of fugitive. Added reference to 95-3134.1 - apparent error.

Section 64. 95-3129. Nonwaiver by this state. Changed "from" to "for a" - apparent error. Deleted "a" before "sentence" - apparent error.

Section 65. 95-3206. Orders, records, report - reviewability, confidentiality. Changed "of" to "with the" - apparent error. Deleted "of institutions" - "department" is defined.

Section 66. 95-3214. Parole authority and procedure. Added "Subject..." to clarify. Rewrote subsection (1)(a) to clarify that the lesser of one-quarter of the term and 12-1/2 years (or one-third of the term and 17-1/2 years in the case of a persistent felony offender) must be served in order to qualify for parole and to clarify the reference to the good time allowance provided for in 80-1905. Moved part of former subsection (3) to new subsection (2) to aid recodification and clarify. In subsection (3)(a), changed "and" to "any" - apparent error. Moved part of old subsection (4) to new subsection (4)(b) to clarify and aid recodification. In subsection (5), added "any" to clarify and changed "or" to "and" - apparent error.

Section 67. 95-3215. Duration of parole. Clarified "good time allowances" - see 80-1905. Added "on parole" after "persistent felony offender" to clarify.

Section 68. 95-3306. Supervision on parole. Added "and" in subsection (4) to clarify.

Section 69. 95-3308. Return of parole violator. Changed "violations" to "violation" to clarify. In subsection (1)(c), clarified "hereinafter". In subsection (2)(b), clarified first sentence and corrected incorrect internal reference to 95-3217. Moved part of former subsection (4) (now subsection (3)(c)) to new subsection (4) to aid recodification.

Section 70. Repealer. Sections 16-2615 and 16-3403 conflict with 95-810. Property found on body - to whom delivered (coroner).

Section 95-2211 is unnecessary and redundant. It refers to Chapter 25, and Chapters 22 and 25 are being combined.

Sections 95-103 through 95-108. Adoption of rules of criminal procedure (formerly 95-2801 through 95-2806) are obsolete. The power they confer expired on January 1, 1969 (see 95-107, formerly 95-2805).

Section 95-3233. The legislature attempted to repeal this section in 1974 but designated its former section number (94-9851) instead of the correct section number. Suggesting repeal now in case the 1974 repeal was ineffective. If the 1974 repeal was effective, this repeal is a harmless nullity.

INTRODUCED BY HAZELBAKER

Section 25. Section 95-1711, R.C.M. 1947, is amended to read as follows:
"95-1711. Effect of former prosecution and multiple multiple charges and former prosecutions. (1) Definitions of terms. (a) The term "same transaction" includes conduct
consisting of:
(i) a series of acts or omissions which are motivated
by a purpose to accomplish a criminal objective, and which are necessary or incidental to the accomplishment of that objective; or
(ii) a series of acts or omissions which are motivated
by a common purpose or plan and which result in the repeated
commission of the same offense or affect the same person or the same persons or the property therefor.
(b) An offense is an "included offense" when:

- 1           (i) it is established by proof of the same or less
2 than all the facts required to establish the commission of 3 the offense charged; ~~or~~
- 4           (ii) it consists of an attempt to commit the offense
5 charged or to commit an offense otherwise included therein;
6 or
7           (iii) it differs from the offense charged only in the
8 respect that a less serious injury or risk of injury to the
9 same person, property or public interest or a lesser kind
10 of culpability suffices to establish its commission.
- 11          (2) ~~Methed--ef--Prosecutes--thes--conduct--esestutes~~
12          ~~here--than--one--offense~~ When the same transaction may
13 establish the commission of more than one offense, a person
14 charged with such conduct may be prosecuted for each such
15 offense. He may not, however, be convicted of more than one
16 offense if:
- 17           (a) one offense is included in the other; ~~or~~
18           (b) one offense consists only of a conspiracy or other
19 form of preparation to commit the other; ~~or~~
- 20           (c) inconsistent findings of fact are required to 21 establish the commission of the offenses;
- 22           (d) the offenses differ only in that one is defined to
23 prohibit a designated kind of conduct generally and the
24 other to prohibit a specific instance of such conduct; or
25 (e) the offense is defined to prohibit a continuing

1 course of conduct and the defendant's course of conduct was
2 interrupted, ~~and~~ unless the law provides that the specific
3 periods of such conduct constitute separate offenses.

- 4           (3) ~~Rhe--prosecution--bates--by--former--prosecution~~
5 ~~provided~~ If the offenses, ~~if--one--than--one,~~ were known to
6 the attorney prosecuting upon sufficient evidence to justify
7 the filing of an information or the issuance of a warrant of
8 arrest and were consummated prior to the original charge,
9 and ~~provided~~ if the jurisdiction and venue of the several
10 offenses lie in a single court, a prosecution based upon the
11 same transaction as a former prosecution is barred by such
12 former prosecution under the following circumstances:
- 13          (a) The former prosecution resulted in an acquittal.
14 There is an acquittal ~~if whenever~~ the prosecution ~~resulted~~
15 results in a finding of not guilty by the trier of fact or 16 in a determination that there ~~as is~~ insufficient evidence
17 to warrant a conviction. A finding of guilty of a lesser
18 included offense than the offense charged which is
19 subsequently set aside is an acquittal of the greater
20 inclusive offense that ~~was~~ charged.
- 21          (b) The former prosecution was terminated, after a 22 complaint had been filed on a ~~misdemeanor~~ charge ~~or~~ after
23 an information had been filed or an indictment found on a
24 felony charge, by a final order of judgment for the
25 defendant which has not been set aside, reversed, or

1 vacated and which necessarily required a determination
2 inconsistent with a fact or a legal proposition that must be
3 established for conviction of the offense.

4 (c) The former prosecution resulted in a conviction.
5 There ~~is~~ has been a conviction if whenever the prosecution
6 resulted in:

7 (i) a judgment of conviction which has not been
8 reversed or vacated; ~~or~~
9 (ii) a verdict of guilty which has not been set aside
10 and which is capable of supporting a judgment, so long as
11 failure to enter judgment was for a reason other than a
12 motion of the defendant; or
13 (iii) a plea of guilty accepted by the court, so long
14 as failure to enter judgment was for a reason other than a
15 motion of the defendant.

16 (d) The former prosecution was improperly terminated.
17 Except as provided in this subsection (d), there is an
18 improper termination of a prosecution if whenever the
19 termination is for reasons not amounting to an acquittal
20 and it takes place after the first witness is sworn but
21 before verdict. Termination under any either of the
22 following circumstances is not improper:
23 (i) ~~the~~ The defendant consents to the termination or
24 waives his right to object to the termination; ~~or~~ 25 (ii) ~~the~~ The trial court, in the exercise of its

1 discretion, finds that the termination is necessary because:
2 (A) it is physically impossible to proceed with the
3 trial in conformity with law; ~~or~~

4 (B) there is a legal defect in the proceedings which
5 would make any judgment entered upon a verdict reversible as 6 a matter of law; ~~or~~
7 (C) prejudicial conduct, in or outside the courtroom
8 makes it impossible to proceed with the trial without
9 manifest injustice to either the defendant or the state; ~~or~~
10 (D) the jury is unable to agree upon a verdict; or
11 (E) false statements of a juror on voir dire prevent a
12 fair trial.

13 (4) ~~Former prosecution in another jurisdiction—when a~~
14 ~~defendant~~ When conduct constitutes an offense within the 15 concurrent jurisdiction of this state and of the United 16 States or another state or of two courts of separate, ~~and~~
17 overlapping, ~~or~~ concurrent jurisdiction in this state, a
18 prosecution in any such other jurisdiction is a bar to a
19 subsequent prosecution in this state under the following
20 circumstances:

21 (a) The first prosecution resulted in an acquittal or
22 in a conviction as defined in subsection (3) and the
23 subsequent prosecution is based on an offense arising out of
24 the same transaction.

25 (b) The former prosecution was terminated, after the complaint has had been filed on a misdemeanor charge or after the information ~~was~~ had been filed or the indictment found on a felony charge, by an acquittal or by a final order or judgment for the defendant which has not been set aside, reversed, or vacated; and ~~which~~ the acquittal, final order, or judgment necessarily required a determination inconsistent with a fact which must be established for conviction of the offense ~~of~~ for which the defendant is subsequently prosecuted.

(5) Person—prosecution—before—court—lacking jurisdiction or when fraudulently prosecuted by the defendant A prosecution is not a bar within the meaning of subsections (3) and (4) under any one or more of the following circumstances:

(a) the former prosecution was before a court which lacked jurisdiction over the defendant or the offense ~~of~~.

(b) the former prosecution was procured by the defendant without the knowledge of the proper prosecuting officer or with the purpose of avoiding the sentence which might otherwise be imposed. ~~of~~

(c) the former prosecution resulted in a judgment of conviction which was held invalid in any post-conviction a postconviction hearing."
