

Four Day School Week and After-School Programming

Background

In 2005, Senate Bill 170 permitted more flexibility in school schedules by changing from a 180-day school year to 1080 hours (20-1-301 MCA School fiscal year). In the 2006-2007 school year there were 10 schools, doubling to 22 schools in 2008-2009 school year, and reaching 105 schools in 2012-2013 school year. Four Day School Week and Afterschool Programs Information:

1. Afterschool programs on Fridays have limited hours.
2. Due to later school release times, afterschool programs must operate with shorter hours during the week.
3. Recruiting staff for programs can be challenging as longer school days lead to a shortage of personnel available to operate the program on Fridays.
