A Humanitarian Crisis

At any time, tens of millions of people are coerced into labor or sex work.¹³

In 2023, an estimated $346.7B
of illicit funds was linked to Human Trafficking.

Human Trafficking by Region of Survey Respondents ranked Human Trafficking as a Top Concern, and in deep dive interviews it was elevated as a top concern.

Defining Human Trafficking

The White Slave Traffic Act of 1910
Mann Act Amended 1986 to further protect minors and adult males.

The Trafficking Victims Protection Act (TVPA) of 2000 provides a three-pronged approach that includes prevention, protection, and prosecution.

U.S. federal law defines human trafficking as the use of force, fraud, or coercion to compel a person into commercial sex acts or labor against their will.

THE A-M-P MODEL

Action	Means*	Purpose
Induce Recruits Harbors Transports Provides or Obtains	Force Fraud or Coercion	Commercial Sex (Sex Trafficking) or Labor/Services (Labor Trafficking)

*Minors induced into commercial sex are human trafficking victims—regardless if force, fraud, or coercion is present.

How Traffickers Maintain Control

- Force: violence, confinement, starvation, rape
- Fraud: false job, love, or marriage promises
- Coercion: threats, debt, blackmail, deportation, FEAR

"Fear is the currency of trafficking. If they control your fear, they control your freedom."

Who's at Risk?

- Risk Factors: poverty, abuse, low self-esteem, substance abuse
- Youth Populations: foster care, LGBTQ2S+, runaways
- Family Dynamics: neglect, absence, poor communication
- The intersection of substance abuse, trauma, and trafficking: Traffickers often target people with substance use disorders, using their addictions as a method of control. A high percentage of trafficking survivors also experience addiction and co-occurring mental health disorders like PTSD.

“Traffickers don’t look for strength—they look for need.”

SURVIVOR VOICES

No Buyers
No Business
No Victims

Human trafficking doesn't begin with a trafficker.
It begins with a buyer.

The real root of trafficking?

Demand for sex and cheap labor--not race, immigration,
or runaway youth.

"We cannot stop supply without confronting demand."

What Buyers Say Behind Closed Doors

Rights4Girls studied 89 conversations divided by region amongst buyers on “Hobby boards.” The report revealed:

- Showed indifference to violence and drug dependency
- Expressed racism and misogyny
- Admitted knowing the people they bought were vulnerable

“These are not men unaware. These are men who know—and buy anyway.”
