1	(b) Amendments to the revenue estimating resolution must be transmitted to the body in which the
2	resolution was introduced no later than the 82nd legislative day.
3	(3) Bills repealing or directing the amendment or adoption of administrative rules and joint resolutions
4	advising or requesting the repeal, amendment, or adoption of administrative rules may be transmitted at any
5	time during a session.
6	(4) Interim study resolutions must be transmitted from one house to the other on or before the 85th
7	legislative day.
8	40-210. Governor's veto. (1) Except as provided in 40-65 and 40-180, each bill passed by the
9	Legislature must be submitted to the Governor for the Governor's signature. This does not apply to:
10	(a) bills proposing amendments to The Constitution of the State of Montana;
11	(b) bills ratifying proposed amendments to the United States Constitution;
12	(c) resolutions; and
13	(d) referendum measures of the Legislature.
14	(2) If the Governor does not sign or veto the bill within 10 days after its delivery, the bill becomes law.
15	(3) The Governor shall return a vetoed bill to the Legislature with a statement of reasons for the veto.
16	(4) If after receipt of a veto message, two-thirds of the members of each house present approve the bil
17	it becomes law.
18	(5) If the Legislature is not in session when the Governor vetoes a bill, the Governor shall return the bil
19	with reasons for the veto to the Legislature as provided by law. The Legislature may be polled on a bill that it
20	approved by two-thirds of the members present or it may be reconvened to reconsider any bill so vetoed
21	(Montana Constitution, Art. VI, Sec. 10).
22	(6) The Governor may veto items in appropriation bills, and in these instances the procedure must be
23	the same as upon veto of an entire bill (Montana Constitution, Art. VI, Sec. 10).
24	(7) (a) For the purposes of the chain of custody of a bill returned from the Governor, receipt of the bill
25	with a veto message from the Governor by the house from which the bill originated occurs when either the
26	Chief Clerk of the House or the Secretary of the Senate physically receives the returned bill and the bill is time
27	stamped and dated as being received.
28	(b) For the purposes of this rule and Joint Rule 40-220, the applicable chamber officially receives a bill

returned with a veto message from the Governor at the time and date that the presiding officer or the presiding

2 officer's designee reads the Governor's veto message to the members over the rostrum. 3 40-220. Response to Governor's veto. (1) When the presiding officer receives a veto message, the 4 presiding officer shall read it to the members over the rostrum. After the reading, a member may move that the 5 Governor's veto be overridden. 6 (2) A vote on the motion is determined by roll call. If two-thirds of the members present vote "aye", the 7 veto is overridden. If two-thirds of the members present do not vote "aye", the veto is sustained. 8 40-230. Governor's recommendations for amendment -- procedure. (1) The Governor may return 9 any bill to the Legislature with recommendations for amendment. The Governor's recommendations for 10 amendment must be considered first by the house in which the bill originated. 11 (2) If the Legislature passes the bill in accordance with the Governor's recommendations, it shall return 12 the bill to the Governor for reconsideration. The Governor may not return a bill to the Legislature a second time 13 for amendment. 14 (3) If the Governor returns a bill to the originating house with recommendations for amendment, the 15 house shall reconsider the bill under its rules relating to amendments offered in Committee of the Whole. 16 (4) The bill then is subject to the following procedures: 17 (a) The originating house shall transmit to the second house, for consideration under its rules relating to 18 amendments in Committee of the Whole, the bill and the originating house's approval or disapproval of the Governor's recommendations. 19 20 (b) If both houses approve the Governor's recommendations, the bill must be returned to the Governor 21 for reconsideration. 22 (c) If both houses disapprove the Governor's recommendations, the bill must be returned to the 23 Governor for reconsideration. 24 (d) If one house disapproves the Governor's recommendations and the other house approves, then 25 either house may request a conference committee, which may be a free conference committee. 26 (i) If both houses adopt a conference committee report, the bill in accordance with the report must be 27 returned to the Governor for reconsideration. 28 (ii) If a conference committee fails to reach agreement or if its report is not adopted by both houses, the
