

This is the final chart in a six week series on Montana salaries in the public sector. The chart shows Montana's judicial elected official salaries. The data for this chart was provided in the Department of Administration's State of Montana 2012 Elected Officials Salary Survey. In addition to salary, state elected officials receive reimbursement for meals, lodging and travel expenses when the individual is away from their designated headquarters, as defined in MCA, 2-18-501.
