Section 4. Section 39-51-3201, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-3201. Making false statement or representation or failing to disclose material fact in order to obtain or increase benefits -- administrative penalty and remedy. (1) (a) A person who makes a false statement or representation knowing it to be false or who knowingly fails to disclose a material fact in order to obtain or increase any benefit or other payment under this chapter or under an employment security law of any other state or territory or the federal government, either for the individual or for any other person, is:

(i) disqualified for benefits for a period of not more than 52 weeks, beginning with the first compensable week following the date of determination by the department, with the length of time of the disqualification to be determined by the department in accordance with the severity of each case; and

(ii) required to repay to the department, pursuant to the provisions of 39-51-3206, a sum equal to the amount wrongfully received by the individual, plus a department-assessed penalty equal to 50% of the fraudulently obtained benefits. The department-assessed penalty incorporates the 15% penalty required under 42 U.S.C. 503(a).

(b) Benefits may not be used to offset the penalty due. The individual subject to this section is not required to repay any amount wrongfully obtained more than 5 years prior to the date of the department's determination that the individual made false statements, willful nondisclosure, or misrepresentation.

(2) (a) An individual, other than a person with a bona fide disability that prevents the individual from making or filing a claim for benefits on the individual's own behalf, who allows or authorizes another person to make or file a claim for benefits on the individual's behalf without designating that person as an authorized agent is subject to the penalties prescribed in subsection (1).

(b) The designation of a person who is not an attorney as an individual's agent must be in writing and signed by the individual. The designation must specify:

- (i) the period of time covered by the designation; and
- (ii) any limits on the agent's authority.

(c) Any action taken or information provided by an agent has the same effect as an action taken or information provided by the individual.

(3) Of the money collected from the penalties under subsection (1)(a), 70% must be deposited in the account provided for in 39-51-406. The remaining 30% of the collected penalties must be deposited in the unemployment insurance fund provided for in 39-51-401. Money deposited in the account provided for in 39-51-406 may be appropriated to the department to be used to detect and collect unpaid taxes and overpayments of benefits to the extent that federal grant revenues are inadequate for these purposes. ~~Money in the account provided for in 39-51-406 not appropriated for these purposes must be transferred by the department to the unemployment insurance trust fund at the end of each fiscal year."~~

Section 5. Section 39-51-3202, MCA, is amended to read:

"39-51-3202. Making false statement or representation or failing to disclose material fact in order to obtain or increase benefits -- criminal penalty. (1) A person who, in order to obtain or increase for personal gain or for any other person benefits under this chapter or under an employment security law of any other state or territory or the federal government, knowingly makes a false statement or representation or knowingly fails to disclose a material fact is guilty of a crime under 45-7-203 and 45-7-210, and the department may cause criminal proceedings to be initiated against the person.

(2) A person will be required to repay to the department an amount as determined by 39-51-3201(1)(a).

(3) For purposes of this section, restitution awarded under this section must include a sum equal to the amount wrongfully received, plus the department may assess a penalty not to exceed 100% of the amount wrongfully received. All money accruing from the penalty must be deposited in the federal special revenue account. Money deposited in that account may be appropriated to the department to be used to detect and collect unpaid taxes and overpayments of benefits to the extent that federal grant revenues are inadequate for these purposes. ~~Money in the account not appropriated for these purposes must be transferred by the department to the unemployment insurance trust fund at the end of each fiscal year."~~

Section 6. Section 61-11-508, MCA, is amended to read:

"61-11-508. Permitted disclosure of personal information -- specific uses. (1) On application, proof of the identity of the person requesting a record, and payment of fees required in 61-11-510, the department may disclose personal information, including highly restricted personal information, from a motor vehicle record to:

(a) the person who is the subject of the motor vehicle record; or

(b) a person who represents that the use of the information will be strictly limited to one or more of the following:

(i) a federal, state, or local government agency, including a court or a law enforcement agency, and any individual acting on behalf of the agency in carrying out its functions, including county government elections officials verifying voter registration information and representatives of the news media for a legitimate law enforcement purpose, as determined by the department; or

(ii) a person, organization, or entity, on the express consent of the person to whom the information pertains.

(2) The department may not disclose a social security number unless:

(a) it is disclosed for the purposes of subtitle VI of Title 49 of the U.S.C.;

(b) it is disclosed to the department of public health and human services for use in administering Title IV-D of the Social Security Act;

(c) the release of the social security number is specifically authorized by law, but only the final four numbers of a social security number may be released to county government election officials verifying voter registration information; or

(d) it is disclosed to the department of labor and industry for the purpose of unemployment insurance program integrity, pursuant to 39-51-706; or

~~(d)~~(e) it is disclosed to the department of revenue for use in administering and enforcing Montana's income tax laws. The department of revenue shall treat social security numbers received pursuant to this subsection (2)(d) as confidential pursuant to 15-30-2618."

Section 7. Repealer. The following section of the Montana Code Annotated is repealed:
39-51-703. Definitions.

Section 8. Effective dates. (1) Except as provided in subsection (2), [this act] is effective October 1, 2025.

(2) [Sections 4 and 5] and this section are effective on passage and approval.
